If personal data is exchanged under the Agreement, the following additional provisions shall apply:

- a) The receiving authority may use such data only for the stated purpose and shall be subject to the conditions prescribed by the supplying authority; such use is also permitted, subject to the written consent required under Article 8, for the prevention and prosecution of serious crimes and for the purpose of addressing serious threats to public security;

III. Ad article 12

In the event that a Party applies prejudicial or restrictive measures based on harmful tax practices to residents or nationals of the other Party, either Party may immediately initiate Competent Authority proceedings to resolve the matter. A prejudicial or restrictive measure based on harmful tax practices is a measure applied by one Party to residents or nationals of either Party on the basis that any one or more of the following applies:

- a) the other Party does not engage in effective exchange of information;
- b) because it lacks transparency in the operation of its laws, regulations or administrative practices; or,
- c) on the basis of no or nominal taxes.

Without limiting the generality of the term, "prejudicial or restrictive measure" is not limited solely to taxation matters and includes the denial of a deduction, credit or exemption, the imposition of a tax, charge or levy, or special reporting requirements, but does not include any generally applicable measure, applied by either Party against, amongst others, members of the OECD generally.

IV.

In the light of the experience of operating the Agreement, or to reflect changing circumstances, either Party may wish to propose a variation in the terms of this Agreement. If so, it is understood the other Party will agree to hold timely discussions with a view to revising the terms of the Agreement.

- a) The competent authorities may initiate discussions in case:
 - (i) the Cayman Islands enters into an agreement with another jurisdiction which provides for other forms of exchange of information;
 - (ii) the Kingdom of the Netherlands, in respect of the Netherlands Antilles, enters into an agreement with another jurisdiction comparable to the Cayman Islands which provides for other forms of exchange of information;
 - (iii) the Cayman Islands introduces new legislation which enables other forms of exchange of information;
 - (iv) the Netherlands Antilles introduces new legislation which enables other forms of exchange of information.
- b) If the Cayman Islands enters into arrangements with another jurisdiction comparable to the Netherlands Antilles for the provision of information with respect to taxes that are less burdensome in any material respect than the provisions of the Agreement, the Netherlands Antilles may initiate discussions with the Cayman Islands with a view to modifying the Agreement to have similar effect;
- c) If the Netherlands Antilles enters into arrangements with another jurisdiction comparable to the Cayman Islands for the provision of information with respect to taxes that are less burdensome in any material respect than the provisions of the Agreement, the Cayman Islands may initiate discussions with the Netherlands Antilles with a view to modifying the Agreement to have similar effect.

V.

This Protocol shall form an integral part of the Agreement between the Cayman Islands as authorised under the letter of entrustment dated 1 September 2009 from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, in respect of the Netherlands Antilles for the exchange of information with respect to tax matters, and shall enter into force on the same date as the Agreement.

VI.

The Parties may, by mutual arrangement, amend this Protocol at any time in writing. Such amendment shall enter into force on the first day of the second month after the Parties have notified each other in writing that the constitutional or internal requirements for the entry into force of the amendment have been complied with.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorised in that behalf by their respective Governments, have signed this Protocol.
